

Are you interested in archaeology in the North of England? Do you want to

- find
- 2 newsletters featuring current archaeology and events in the region
- out
- Special access to sites or world-renowned experts through our special events programme
- more
- Advice on issues concerning archaeological heritage in your neighbourhood
- about
- Information on what fieldwork is happening where, and how you can get involved.

how to get involved? Then join CBA North*!

Membership is only £5 for a whole year, and for this you will receive:

To join CBA North, please fill out the form below:

Name _____

Address _____

Post code _____

Email address _____

UK prices individual £5, joint £7, family £8, student free Europe prices individual £7, joint £9, family £10, student free Rest of World individual £9, joint £11, family £12, student free

Please enclose cheque made payable to Council for British Archaeology North Region.

Please post application to: Jennifer Morrison (Secretary)
Newcastle City Council
Environment and Regeneration Directorate
Strategic Housing, Planning and Transportation
Development Management
Civic Centre (Room 912)
Newcastle upon Tyne
NE1 8PH

please note that if you are a member of the CBA nationally you might already be a member of CBA North if you live in Cumbria, Northumberland, Tyne and Wear, County Durham or the Tees Valley. CBA North may be joined separately to the CBA, and may be joined as an extra Group if you are already a regional member of another Group through an existing CBA membership. For further information contact cbanorth@britarch.ac.uk*